

THE THREE BEARS' CHRISTMAS SONG

Words By Kathy Duval

Sing to the tune of Frere Jacques. A leader sings each line, then everyone sings it.

Who's in your house? (Who's in your house?)
Baby Bear? (Baby Bear?)
Someone ate your cookie (Someone ate your cookie)
And broke your chair. (And broke your chair.)

Who's in your house (Who's in your house)
Baby Bear? (Baby Bear?)
Someone slept in your bed (Someone slept in your bed)
And ran downstairs. (And ran downstairs.)

Who left his clothes (Who left his clothes)
Baby Bear? (Baby Bear?)
Someone flew away (Someone flew away)
In his underwear. (In his underwear)

Ho Ho Ho! (HO HO HO!)

Someone jolly (Someone jolly)
Baby Bear! (Baby Bear!)
He left you lots of presents (He left you lots of presents)
And a brand new chair. (And a brand new chair.)

Merry Christmas (Merry Christmas)
Baby Bear! (Baby Bear!)
Santa's seeing children (Santa's seeing children)
Everywhere. (Everywhere.)
